Objective

The aim of this conference is to provide legal practitioners with an update on recent developments in European sports law and the mechanisms put in place to safeguard integrity and good governance. It will give them the opportunity to discuss current legal reforms and case law with high-level experts in the field.

Who should attend?

Staff of government bodies and national sports and doping authorities, sport lawyers, NGOs, representatives of national and international sports federations

You will learn ...

- how to combine autonomy of sport federations with the provisions of EU competition law
- which challenges in the application of new technologies and innovation have emerged in sport and how to cope with them
- how to ensure good governance within sporting organisations and how to safeguard integrity in sporting competition
- which challenges arise for sport as a possible consequence of Brexit
- how to act in the complex regulatory environment of e-sport
- about the current changes in the anti-doping system and the consequences of personal data protection reform
